

What is a virtue? A virtue is a behavior showing high moral standards. What is the definition of generosity? It means giving oneself in a willing and cheerful manner for the good of others.

What is Generosity? It means giving of oneself in a willing and cheerful manner for the good of others.

Each of the students listed below display this trait to their peers and to their teachers and it was why they were selected as the affable student of the month.

Kindergarten-This student is very generous with the kindness he shows to others. He smiles at others when they are feeling down to make them feel better. He is always thinking of those around him, especially if someone needs help. He makes sure the teachers are aware that one of his kindergarten friends needs help or guidance in a certain area. He has certainly earned this recognition.

Kindergarten's student is Gray Stewart.

1st grade-This student is a positive influence in first grade. He is generous with his kind words and actions. He is helpful to his classmates and his teachers. He is fun to be around and works hard to do his best.

1st grade's student is John Kuzniar (1B).

2nd grade-This student is a model for generosity. He does not hesitate to offer help to both his teachers and classmates. He is the first one to offer a pencil when someone needs one. He never asks for anything in return and is just happy helping his classmates when needed. I'm glad he is in our class.

2nd grade's student is Aiden Haas.

3rd grade-This student is a wonderful student who always tries her best. She has a smile on her face every time she walks into the classroom. She is generous in all she does in school and on the playground with her classmates. She is always willing to help her classmates and her teacher. She is a pleasure to have in my class this year.

3rd grade's student is Dakota Innocenzo (3A).

4th grade- This student always puts others first time and time again. He is always there to help his classmates in need, and he is always so willing to give to others. His generosity is truly something to be admired at a young age.

4th grade's student is Kellen Holmes.

5th grade-This student demonstrates the quality of generosity in many ways. He is generous of spirit: he compliments his classmates and is supportive of them, he had a warm welcome for a new student, he gladly holds the door for everyone, he has a pleasant greeting in the morning for all, and his smile is genuine and warm.

5th grade's student is Vincent Guarneri.

6th grade-This student comes to school each morning with a pleasant and cheerful attitude. He is always polite and eager to please. He is nice and friendly to his fellow students and seems happy to welcome them to his circle of friends. He is generous of spirit and is definitely an example of Christian ideals for our students.

6th grade's student is Brian Scharff.

7th grade-This student exemplifies generosity in her actions every day. She not only is willing to help others, she does it with a smile on her face. When a classmate needs assistance we can always count on this student to be the one to help and make sure everyone is included.

7th grade's student is Maya Hutchinson (7B).

8th grade-This student is extremely generous in many ways. It is evident that she truly cares about Saint Rose and her 8th grade family. Whether she is helping students with their math or helping teachers, she is always generous with her time. In spite of our circumstances, she has worked hard to ensure that this 8th grade year is a special one. Thank you for all you do!

8th grade's student is Adison Reilly (8B).

Special-This student was selected for her cheerful smile and kind heart. She is always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone. She is generous in spirit and her positive attitude makes everyone's day.

Special class' student selected by Mrs. Knapp is Lily Bruce (7A).
